

Stephanie Hankey has served as the Pastor of Westminster Presbyterian Church in Anacortes for fourteen years. She attended Columbia Theological Seminary in Decatur, GA. Before attending seminary she served as a Mission Volunteer with the PC(USA) for a year—working at a homeless shelter/soup kitchen in Juneau, AK. It was while working at the shelter that Stephanie met her future husband, Chris, who was also serving as a Mission Volunteer. Chris and Stephanie have two children, Eli (7) and Rachel (4) and celebrated their 15th wedding anniversary at the end of 2010.

Pastor Stephanie enjoyed a Lilly Foundation sabbatical grant last year and spent six weeks with her family traveling in Greece. She enjoys gardening, swimming, walking, reading, laughing, cooking, and sharing meals with friends. Last June she walked the Seattle Rock-n-Roll Half Marathon and is registered to walk it again this June!
